

Guidelines for the Rural Missouri Scholarship Fund

Missouri Association of Rural Education

OVERVIEW:

The level of economic development of an area is directly related to the quality of education available. To improve the economic development of rural Missouri, an adequate number of well-trained, dedicated teachers must be available to instruct in rural school districts.

OBJECTIVES:

The goals to be achieved through the Rural Missouri Scholarship Fund include:

- ❑ Attracting quality teachers to rural school districts
- ❑ Improving the economic development of rural communities by upgrading the education system to provide a well-educated, skilled work force
- ❑ Attract intelligent, energetic individuals to furnish leadership skills in rural communities

CRITERIA FOR SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION:

MARE's scholarship committee has recommended the general criteria to include:

- ❑ Academic achievement
- ❑ Leadership qualities
- ❑ Interest in teaching in a rural school system

COMPONENTS OF SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION CRITERIA:

Only junior and senior-level Missouri college/university students qualify as scholarship recipients. (Exception – Colleges/Universities that do not approve a students' major in education until they are enrolled in a 5th year) program) Eligible students are those who have successfully completed 60 credit hours and have declared a major in education. There is no limit to the number of scholarship applications that each college or university may submit.

A scholarship recipient may reapply in a subsequent year for another scholarship.

Applicants must have achieved 2.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

An essay must be submitted describing the applicant's connection to, and interest in rural Missouri, and why they want to teach in a rural community. This essay should be no more than two pages, double-spaced.

Applicants must also provide personal recommendations from three college/university education professors. These recommendations should include comments on the following:

- ❑ Leadership ability
- ❑ Scholastic achievement
- ❑ Dependability
- ❑ Ability to relate to students and faculty
- ❑ Potential for success as a rural teacher

A complete copy of college transcripts is required with the application.

The application form includes such items as:

- ❑ What is the degree of your financial need?
- ❑ How are you funding your education?
- ❑ What other scholarships have you been granted?
- ❑ What is your major area of course study?
- ❑ In what activities have you participated while in school? (Clubs, student government, sports, volunteerism, etc.)

Applicant agrees to be present to receive the award at the MARE Summer Board Meeting currently scheduled in Jefferson City, MO.

On Saturday, July 30, 2022 at 11:00 a.m.

SCREENING PROCEDURES:

MARE will contact Missouri colleges/universities offering teaching degrees, asking that each submit candidate applications. The applications will be screened by the Scholarship Committee, which is responsible for naming scholarship recipients.
